

Kate Jaspon

Chief Financial Officer

An eleven-year Dunkin' Brands veteran, Kate Jaspon joined Dunkin' Brands as Assistant Controller in 2005. She was later promoted to Vice President, Finance and Treasury, and was appointed Chief Financial Officer in June 2017.

Ms. Jaspon came to Dunkin' Brands from KPMG LLP, the international financial services corporation, where she spent eight years supporting both public and private companies as an auditor.

A certified public accountant, Ms. Jaspon is a graduate of Babson College.